7. ACCOMODATION AT DORMITORIES

You will be asked if you would like to stay at one of our dormitories during your application procedure. When application finishes, we will let you know if you get any place at the dormitory or not. We cannot provide places for every student who apply for Erasmus+. Conditions of Residence are available also in English.

University dormitories:

„Zbyszko i Jagienka” dormitory – look at: <http://zbyszkoijagienka.amu.edu.pl>

“Jowita” dormitory – look at: <http://dsjowita.home.amu.edu.pl/>

You can also consider private dorm “Polonez” in the center of Poznań – look at: <https://studentdepot.pl/en/dormitory-polonez-poznan>

8. HEALTH INSURANCE

Erasmus students are required to have a valid European Health Card issued at their home country. The EHC should be valid during the whole period of mobility).

9. INDIVIDUALS WITH MOBILITY AND OTHER DISABILITIES

Faculty of Social Sciences premises are fully accessible to individuals with mobility disabilities including wheelchair access and lifts. Unfortunately, not every toilet is adapted to individuals with such disabilities.

If you have any questions considering special assistance during lessons and exams or other conditions feel free to contact us.

10. UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES

CAMPUS LIBRARY

The library collection is that of five faculties. The collection comprises around 180 000 books.

The library has its own Reading Room, Lending Library, and storing facilities.

The Reading Room is open to public and holds the open-access part of the collection of books and journals on philosophy, ethics, logic, culture studies, pedagogy, psychology, religion studies, sociology, job consulting, advertising as well as dictionaries, lexicons and encyclopedias. Some publications in English are also available.

The Reading Room has 95 seats for readers, equipment supporting readers with disabilities and 14 computers connected to the Internet.

UNIVERSITY LIBRARY

The library has a large collection of printed materials and an extensive electronic online system. The printed collection includes about 3 million volumes of books and periodicals, as well as newspapers, maps and other documents.

For more information, visit the library website: <http://lib.amu.edu.pl>

The University Library offers:

- library and information services to student and staff at the Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań
- access to periodicals, encyclopedias and reference literature, both in printed and electronic form, as well as online information databases
- courses/instruction how to use the library's collection and service
- online search service

11. STUDNET ORGANIZATIONS

Erasmus Student Network

Erasmus Student Network is a part of an international student organization cooperating in over 30 European countries. ESN supports the Erasmus international student exchange with the MENTOR Program. Each foreign student will be assigned to a Polish student who will:

- pick you up from an airport, train or bus station
- help you to check-in at the dormitory
- show you the Faculty and lead you to the Erasmus coordinator
- help you to open a bank account
- make you feel like home during your stay in Poznań

Moreover, this organization makes occasional thematic parties that are to get foreigners familiarize with Polish traditions and, at the same time, to give Polish student a deeper insight into the European cultures.

If you need more information please visit this website: www.uam.esn.pl or send an e-mail: esn@amu.edu.pl

Student's Scientific Circles

At the Department of Philosophy we are proud to have active scientific circles. Our students met on regular basis for a self-education and organize scientific conferences on various philosophical dilemmas etc.

If you are considering joining to the Student's Scientific Circle please contact us.
